

Vote is Against Wallgren

Senate Armed Services Group Rejects Nomination Made by Truman

WASHINGTON, Mar. 15.—(AP)—The Senate Armed Services committee today rejected President Truman's nomination of Mon C. Wallgren to be chairman of the National Securities Resources Board.

On a 7-6 vote, the committee tabled the nomination. That action has the effect of finally burying it unless some committee member changes his mind or the Senate itself calls it up.

That procedure would require only a majority vote, but it is rarely used.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.) joined with six Republicans on the committee to tip the scales against Wallgren, a former senator and a enemy of Mr. Truman.

Chairman Tydings (D-Md.) told reporters about the action after a closed committee meeting.

A Party Vote

He said all the Republican members voted for the motion to table and all the Democrats except Byrd voted against it.

The motion adopted by the committee said no evidence reflecting on Wallgren's loyalty had been filed but stated the former Washington governor lacks sufficient "economic and industrial experience."

Senator Cain (R-Wash.) who led the fight against the nomination, had accused Wallgren in public hearings of being soft towards Communism. He also called him unfit.

The vote to table was an even sharper setback than a simple vote in opposition to the appointment would have been.

Petition Required

If the committee had simply rejected the nomination and so reported, then Senate then could have acted on whether to confirm Wallgren. Now Senate action requires a discharge petition to take the matter away from the committee.

The motion to table was made by Senator Gurney (R-SD) and was seconded by Senator Ballon-stall (R-Mass.).

Byrd made his opposition to the nomination clear ahead of the committee meeting, but did not go along with a motion to bury it.

Thought For Today

Truly at the day of judgment we shall not be examined as to what we have read, but as to what we have done; not as to how well we have spoken, but as to how religiously we have lived.—Thomas a Kempis.

Died Early Today

Gould Allen Sturges, prominent Sedalian, died at his home, 424 South Grand avenue, early this morning.

G. A. Sturges, Prominent Sedalian, Dies

For More Than Fifty Years he Was In Lumber Business

Gould Allen Sturges, prominent Sedalian, retired business man and civic leader, died at his home, 424 South Grand avenue, at 3:00 o'clock this morning. He had been ill about four years.

Mr. Sturges was born October 8, 1883, at Logansport, Ind., a son of the late Mrs. Margaret Cummings Sturges and Gould Allen Sturges.

The family moved to Sedalia from Indiana in the fall of 1885 and the father purchased a large tract of land in the western part of the city, on part of which the present Sturges home now stands.

A small home was built which the family occupied and later that was replaced by the large home.

Mr. Sturges' father died in August, 1870 and his mother in 1926.

In Chicago Bank

After attending the public schools in Sedalia Gould Allen Sturges received further education at Putnam college, Zanesville, Ohio, and in Chicago. After completing his schooling he was employed for three years in the Northwestern National bank in Chicago of which his uncle, James D. Sturges, was president.

On February 12, 1886, Mr. Sturges was married to Miss Harriet Perkins of Troy, Mo., and shortly thereafter he entered the lumber business in Lexington. In 1893 he and his brother, the late Thomas J. Sturges, bought the Meyer Lumber company in Sedalia and founded the Sturges Brothers Lumber Co.

In 1909 the business was taken over by G. A. Sturges as the Sturges Lumber Co., of which he was president and which office he held until the business was dissolved and he retired in 1945.

For more than 52 years Mr. Sturges was a leader in Sedalia's civic and business life. He was a vice president and director of the Sedalia National bank and helped organize the present Sedalia Bank and Trust company, and was a director at the time of his death.

A Civic Leader

He was among a group of Sedalians active in bringing the railroad shops to this city, was influential in construction and all progressive movements toward the betterment of Sedalia.

He helped found the Sedalia Country club and was one of its earliest officers and directors and assisted in directing the construction of its first clubhouse, now part of the Missouri State Fair Grounds. Upon his retirement from business he was given a complimentary membership of the Country club.

Mr. Sturges was among many Sedalians who enjoyed the club and its recreation. He was a good golf player and won many trophies. Other outdoor activities were to his liking. He enjoyed hunting and fishing and was a member of a club that of-

Former Secretary of State Has Luncheon With the President

By Ernest B. Vaccaro
KEY WEST, Fla., March 15.—(AP)—George C. Marshall, former secretary of state, joined President Truman at luncheon today after a flight here from Miami.

The two posed for pictures on the lawn of the "Little White House" with William D. Pawley, former ambassador to Brazil, Chief Justice Vinson and Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy.

There was no reference to yesterday's White House ban against air photographs of the president's submarine station quarters or his swimming at the beach as Mr. Truman joked as usual with the picture takers.

Marshall quit the cabinet in January after a kidney operation. There was no official indication from Presidential Press Secretary Charles C. Ross on whether Marshall and the president would have more than a friendly discussion before the latter flies

Lad Awakens To Strange Bright World

Mother Hid Him In Dungeon-Like For Over 10 Years

BOSTON, March 15.—(AP)—Bewildered Gerald Sullivan, locked away from the world during all he can remember of his nearly 14 years, awoke to a strange new life in a bright new world today.

Compassion flowed toward him. It was evidenced in scores of adoption offers for the lad whose mother told police she hid him away because he was a "love child."

A pathetic figure, the pale, blue-eyed lad, with long dark hair streaming about his shoulders, fled from the brick-walled tenement in which he had been locked. Policemen halted the fantastic fleeing figure, dressed in remnants of a girl's dress.

Placed in a private home over night—awaiting court action to determine his future—Gerald had his first haircut. For the first time he looked like a normal boy.

Remained In Seclusion

He remained in seclusion at the home this forenoon. Police Captain Francis W. Russell and his men allowed no one to bother Gerald with lengthy questioning.

Soon he will have another new experience. He will be arraigned in Roxbury district court, Captain Russell said, on the usual charge of being a neglected child.

This is Massachusetts' traditional legal way of dealing with such cases. The court can take official custody and decide whether Gerald is to be placed in a state home, left with some family or returned to his mother.

But adoption would not be immediately possible under state laws, which call for a protracted period as a state ward in cases of neglected or orphaned children.

Captain Russell, who told of the adoption offers, said it was discovered today that Gerald had been locked up even longer than the ten years originally supposed.

He said Gerald had been boarded out 13 months with a family after his birth. During the rest of his 13 years and five months, he was kept in seclusion by his mother.

Of his mother, who kept him locked in a bare third-floor tenement room, Gerald said, according to police:

"I don't love her. She was bad to me."

Trip to Races Causes Arrest

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 15.—(AP)—A trip to the races brought an end to a two-year search for one of the nation's leading "hot check artists." Edwin J. Foltz, Little Rock Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, said today.

He announced the arrest here last night of William James Moeller, 56, who he said had been hunted since August, 1947, in the United States and Canada.

Foltz said Moeller was spotted by FBI agents at the Oakland Park race track, and was arrested last night on Central avenue here. He probably will be returned to Washington, D. C. to face charges, Foltz added.

The Arkansas FBI report said Moeller had cashed 43 worthless checks in amounts from $50 to $450 in 19 states and Canada since Aug. 20, 1947. In addition to the Washington charges, Foltz said Moeller had been indicted in the Eastern District of Missouri on charges of violating the National Stolen Property Act.

The FBI list showed Moeller had operated principally in the east, but that he had passed checks in Georgia, Alabama, Oklahoma and Missouri.

American Legion is Thirty Years Old

PARIS, March 15.—(AP)—The American Legion is 30 years old today.

On March 15, 1919, about 1,000 soldiers of World War I met in the Paris Circus to found the organization which now claims over 4,000,000 members. They were brought together by the late Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.

The old Circus building has long since been torn down, but today Paris Post Commander C. Denby Wilkes of both world wars, will place a wreath at the site.

Flames, Fed by Bursting Oil Drums, Destroy Army Pier

OAKLAND, Calif., March 15.—(AP)—Leaping flames, fed by the bursting oil drums, destroyed a huge army pier here today. Loss was estimated by the military at more than $1,000,000.

Two ships tied to the pier were damaged slightly before tugs got them to the safety of the bay. Adjacent warehouses and the entire Oakland industrial waterfront were threatened for several hours as exploding drums hurled blazing oil hundreds of feet.

The 1,000-foot pier was one of the largest from which men and supplies were dispatched to all Pacific fronts in the war. It was just south of the Oakland end of the San Francisco bay bridge.

The fire flared at midnight. Eight hours later fire boats and land equipment still were pouring water into the smoldering ruins.

While the huge warehouse burned, an adjacent building, through which the war dead pass en route home for burial, was untouched by fire. They were separated only by an arway.

The blistering heat from exploding oil drums and other inflammable materials kept firemen the distance of their hoses. Paint, rubber tires and other combustibles jammed the burning warehouse, feeding the leaping flames.

The long shed was loaded with great masses of cargo for Okinawa and Japan. An army spokesman said it appeared this was "practically a total loss." In addition to general cargo the destroyed and damaged material included lubricating oil, tires, food, clothing, auto parts, crated jeeps and machinery.

Maj. Gen. James A. Lester, commanding the port of embarkation, said after a preliminary examination, "There are no indications the blaze was deliberately set."

Homemade Snow In Wrong Place

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland, March 15.—(AP)—Swiss hotelkeepers have learned how to make "snow bombs"—but they need a bomb-sight badly.

A hotel owner here who will do almost anything for a guest, decided to provide snow for visitors who were stubbing their skis on Alpine rocks.

The attempts to adopt the American method of making snow by dropping dry ice into a cloud failed because of lack of clouds.

On the fourth day a big fat cloud came along in time. Hotel men watched with field glasses as the dry ice was thrown out over a wide area above the cloud.

A light snow drifted down. But not over St. Moritz. It fell to the north—over the ski runs of Davos—bitter rivals of St. Moritz.

Late Winter Cold Snap Over Part of Nation

CHICAGO, March 15.—(AP)—A late winter cold snap chilled a wide area of the nation today.

Temperatures were below normal from the Rockies to the Appalachians and from Arkansas-Tennessee to the Canadian border. There were sub-zero readings in the Dakotas and northern Minnesota. One of the lowest readings was 12 below at Dickinson, N. D. Temperatures were 10 to 15 degrees below normal over the Great Lakes, Mississippi and the upper Mississippi valley.

Colder weather was forecast tonight for the southwest states, the mercury was expected to fall to zero in parts of Nebraska, Missouri, and Kansas and to 10 above in Oklahoma. Temperatures were expected to moderate over most of the north central states.

Light Snow Falls

Light snow fell over a narrow band from southeastern Colorado eastward across southern Arkansas, central Missouri, southern Illinois, Indiana and Ohio into western Pennsylvania. St. Louis reported a fall of one inch. Rain fell along the Carolina coast but ended in the Gulf states. Rain also fell along the Washington coast and there was snow inland as far as western Montana.

Readings were about normal along the Pacific coast and most of the eastern states. They were above normal in the northeastern states.

H. D. Rodgers On Road Board

JEFFERSON CITY, March 15.—(AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith appointed Harris D. Rodgers of Benton to the state highway commission today. He said he would suggest the commission name him chairman.

Rodgers, a real estate and insurance man, is the Scott county Democratic chairman. The governor called him "one of the outstanding men in that section of the state."

Rodgers succeeds Paul Jones of Kennett, who resigned as chairman to run for Congress in the ninth district of southwestern Missouri last year. Former Gov. Phil M. Donnelly appointed J. Raymond Lucy of Parma to succeed, but he was never confirmed and the new state senate returned his name to Smith when the new governor took office in January.

Rodgers will serve for Jones' unexpired term ending March 29, 1951.

The appointment came on the heels of a proposal to expand the commission from four to eight members, giving the legislature two big road problems to settle.

Tennessee Court Rules to Sell Farm

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 15.—(AP)—The Tennessee Court of Appeals affirmed today Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's rejection of a Greene county farmer's estate and ordered the 150-acre farm sold.

Mrs. Roosevelt was named chief beneficiary of A. B. Starnes, 71-year-old bachelor who died in August, 1947. She disavowed any claim on the property.

The court ruled that the farm should be sold and the proceeds divided among Starnes' heirs.

Starnes was a staunch Democrat.

Soviet Russia Continues Her Changes

Second Day of Conference on North Atlantic Pact

By The Associated Press

Soviet Russia continued to shake up her top government leadership today.

In the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, Nikifor Nalatchev and Georgi Sturua were relieved as vice-presidents and replaced by Vasily Kozlov and Vasily Gogol.

Two other important changes were confirmed yesterday. Nikolai A. Voznesensky was relieved as Planning Commission chairman and deputy prime minister. The chairmanship went to Maxim Z. Saburov, veteran official on the commission. Ivan T. Golyakov was replaced as president of the Supreme Court by A. A. Volin.

The Supreme Soviet approved the 1949 budget calling for military expenditures of 79,000,000,000 rubles ($15,000,000,000).

Government Silent

The government remained silent on reasons for the top level shifts, which began with the release of V. M. Molotov as foreign minister and A. I. Mikoyan as foreign trade minister.

The Cominform propaganda machine swung to the support of Communist leaders around the world who have declared they would side with Russia in the event of an east-west war.

The Journal of the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) declared in Bucharest today Russia would never start an aggressive war. It charged the United States is preparing to do so.

Commenting on the reaction in western countries to the statements of Communist leaders in those countries that their loyalties are with Russia the Journal said:

"If they (the U. S. and the western powers) are not preparing an aggressive war against the Soviet Union and the peoples' democracies, then why the consternation in their camp?"

Second Day of Meeting

In London statesmen of Britain, France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg went into the second day of a two-day meeting on the problems of the North Atlantic Alliance and the European Union.

In Washington Secretary of State Dean Acheson would meet with Danish Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen and planned more talks with Iceland's foreign minister, who entered the Atlantic pact discussions yesterday.

Britain was reported today to have cautioned Israel that British troops will fight if Jewish armed forces attempt to seize the Transjordan port of Aqaba.

A foreign office spokesman said Britain has explained to Israel the military orders under which British troops now guard Aqaba.

In Nanking former Premier Sun Fo remained mum today after being accused of using his power to benefit the pretty daughter of a wealthy Yunnan province family.

Baking Co. is Fined $1,500

ST. LOUIS, March 15.—(AP)—The General Baking Company of St. Louis was fined $1,500 today on its plea of guilty to a charge of violating the Federal Pure Food and Drug Act by shipping contaminated bread in interstate commerce.

The fine was imposed by U. S. District Judge Ruben M. Hulien. Meanwhile, the September term federal grand jury described as "shocking" the sanitary conditions in some St. Louis bakeries, and added:

"We believe that evidence presented warrants the prosecution of at least five or six of these bakeries."

Three inspectors of the food control section of the city health department were studying conditions at the bakeries and will make a report to the city health commissioner on whether the city should assume sanitary inspection of bakeries.

Pennsylvania Mining Town Sombre, Heavy With Stillness

By Reiman Morin

COVERDALE, Pa., March 15.—(AP)—This little town is like a ghost town, withdrawn and sombre, heavy with stillness.

Nothing moves in the black and rut-slashed lanes. Nothing stirs along "bachelors' row," where unmarried miners live in a line of huddling shacks.

Nothing ruffles the clean white curtains in the windows of the family homes. There are no crowds on the corners, no pickets, no police, no placards, bands or rallies.

Nothing moves except a pale blue shroud of smoke on the other side of the valley, the breath of a slag heap.

It is much the same in all the little coal-mining towns in western Pennsylvania. In Liberty and Sygan, in Morgan and Presto and Daisytown. They too, are silent, and seemingly lifeless. It is like Sunday there, too.

John L. Lewis is the master here. He is the master of the degree of his authority is

Hunting For Indian Sites

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 15.—(AP)—Archaeologists will search for sites of ancient Indian villages in the area that soon will be covered by waters of the Bull Shoals dam.

A three day expedition will start Friday under the direction of Carl H. Chapman, director of American archeology at the University of Missouri.

Chapman said the party will float down the White river from Forsyth and hopes to locate sites that may have been used by the Ozark Bluff Dwellers.

Those planning to make the trip are Ronald Gzell, an M. U. student from St. Louis; James O. Tipps, University of Arkansas student; Henry and Ted Hamilton of Marshall, C. H. Turner of Springfield, B. L. Hall of Kansas City and E. E. Clark of Brentwood, all representing the Missouri Archeological Society.

Important Events In World News

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP)—The House voted today to let each state, county and city decide for itself whether to keep rent control.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 15.—(AP)—The Missouri Senate voted today not to extend salary increases immediately to legislative employees.

The action came on a 15-12 standing vote which struck off an emergency clause designed to put the proposed increases into effect as soon as the bill is passed by both houses and is signed by the governor.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP)—Denmark's foreign minister indicated today he would recommend that his country join the North Atlantic Defense Alliance.

The minister, Gustav Rasmussen, wound up his five-day fact-finding mission here with a farewell call on Secretary of State Acheson.

When he was leaving, reporters asked what his recommendation to the Danish parliament would be. Rasmussen said: "I leave it to you to draw the sensible conclusion."

LONDON, March 15.—(AP)—Britain has made "substantial progress" toward recovery and is past its period of recurring economic crises, a government economic survey for 1949 reported today.

PITTSBURGH, March 15.—(AP)—Idleness among railroad workers spread through the coal fields today amid fears of some coalmen that the mine shutdown may extend beyond two weeks.

Coal-carrying railroads felt the pinch in earnest on the second day of the work stoppage called by John L. Lewis.

Other coal dependent industries hummed merrily. More than 62,000 railroaders are headed for lay-offs by the end of the week.

One coal source pointed out that four days after the 463,000 idle miners are scheduled to return to the pits on March 28, they will observe a traditional holiday—Mitchell Day. John Mitchell was an early United Mine Workers leader credited with winning the eight hour day.

Court Orders Plea Of Innocent

NEW YORK, March 15.—(AP)—Valentin Gubichev, Soviet engineer, stood mute in federal court today when asked to plead to an indictment charging him with espionage. The court ordered a plea of innocent entered in his behalf.

The engineer stuck to his contention, expressed in two previous court appearances, that he is diplomatically immune to prosecution.

He denounced his prosecution in court yesterday as "a comedy."

Plunge Into New Meetings

Senate Leaders Still Seeking Way To Break Dixie Senators' Filibuster

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP)—A new attempt to settle the Senate filibuster failed this afternoon.

Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois announced after a meeting of all faction leaders that "We didn't make much progress. That is all I can say."

He said southern representatives turned down the compromise proposal offered.

He told reporters the situation remains just about where it was last night.

The announcement came about 3 p. m. (EST).

Earlier Lucas had acknowledged that administration forces lacked the votes to end the stalemate if southern Democrats wanted to keep the Senate tied up and could get Republican help.

By Jack Bell

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP)—Senate leaders plunged into a fresh round of conferences today still seeking a compromise settlement of the filibuster row. But there was nothing to indicate that prospects had brightened.

Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois said after a meeting of Truman Democrats that he had not given up hope for a compromise. He said, frankly, however, that his followers lacked the votes to end the present stalemate if southern Democrats want to keep the Senate tied up and can get Republican help.

GOP Conferences

Republicans scheduled two conferences on the situation—a policy committee meeting at 2 p. m. (EST) and a conference of all 42 GOP senators an hour later.

POP Goes the QUEEN
By Bob Wade and Bill Miller

THIS STORY: John Henry and Sin Conover have followed another blind alley in their attempt to solve recent murders at a swank desert resort. Their latest suspect, Mr. Trim, who was supposed to be a representative of a tooth-paste firm, was slugged by Johnny. Then the Conovers had a badge in his wallet. The lettering on it says, "Federal Bureau of Investigation."

XXXIII
"GOLMIGHTY," said Mr. Trim. Sin kept stroking his bald head with one soothing hand. His inert form had been clumsily redressed except for pirate hat and coat, and she knelt on the ground, holding the bruised head in her lap. John Henry sat morosely on the running board of the gray sedan.

"I think he's feeling better," Sin whispered.

Her husband didn't answer. A vision occupied his mind, a vision of John Henry Conover gripping the bars of a cell while Sin pleaded with a relentless Trim about three stories high. He had assaulted and battered a guardian of the law and the law provided for actions like his.

"I wish we had a drink of something," Sin said, watching the face in her lap twitch.

"I could use it," John Henry answered emphatically.

"I meant for Mr. Trim. Shhh! I think he's waking up."

The pseudo tooth-paste representative moaned again, stirred and rocked his head back and forth. John Henry leaned forward. Trim's brown eyes, more watery than ever now, opened and cleared. When he saw the two faces hovering over him, he tried to squirm away.

"It's all right, Mr. Trim," Sin comforted him, her hands holding his shoulders down.

"Let me up, doggonit!" he croaked and spit out a mouthful of sand. Sin obeyed hastily, putting her helpful hands behind her back. Trim sat up quickly and then seized his head as if to keep it from rolling off his shoulders.

"Look," said John Henry. "I'll come along quietly."

73 years old and she is 71. Both are in good health.

Forty-one members of the Central Missouri Schoolmasters club met at the American Legion home Monday night. After the dinner served by the Legion Auxiliary A. L. Crowe, superintendent of the Jefferson City schools presided at the business meeting. Irvin F. Coyle of the State Department of Education talked on the problems of the certification of teachers and a film "Education for Democracy" was shown.

Lester Seacat, past lieutenant governor of District VII, Kiwanis International was speaker at the Monday night meeting of Kiwanis. Other guests were Harry Miller, Charles Gillespie, John Toennes and Malcolm Epstein of Jefferson City and Thurman Hall of California. Between three and four hundred persons are expected to attend the Charter Night ceremonies in the school gymnasium next Monday evening. The local club now has forty-eight members.

Mrs. Herbert Stanley entertained her Tuesday bridge club at the home of Miss Jen Morrison. Mrs. Roy Handley and Mrs. Floyd Oesterly were additional guests. Mrs. Harold Pries received the favors for high club score.

The Coterie met at the home of Mrs. S. C. Gill Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. Pile was a guest.

Twenty-one members of the Wesleyan Circle of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Herman Hodges Monday evening. Mrs. Leland Henry was co-hostess. Mrs. Beryl York gave the program and Mrs. Della Wolf led the devotional. The hostesses served sherry, salad, sandwiches, mints and coffee.

Miss Marie Ditt entertained her bridge club last Friday evening. Miss Sarah Ditt of St. Louis was a guest. Mrs. T. E. Heysell made a high score.

Mrs. L. L. Latham entertained the members of her bridge club. Mrs. Neil Newton, Miss Margaret Williams and Mrs. Henry T. Robbins at the home of Miss Jen Morrison Wednesday afternoon.

The annual Fellowship supper and business meeting of the Presbyterian church was held in the church basement Wednesday evening.

TRIM showed no surprise at the mention of the Queen or anything else. He just sat there, his brown eyes as hard as marbles.

"We're awfully sorry," Sin added weakly. "Does your head hurt much?"

"Never mind that," he said curtly. "I've had worse days. You've seen the papers, I suppose. Gayner's dead. Whoever killed him made off with the route to the galleon."

"We guessed that from the pencil," John Henry interposed. "And that means two people know how to get there now." He elaborated eagerly, as if he were turning state's evidence, telling Trim how they had bargained with Barselou during the afternoon, lost overwhelmingly and escaped from the cellar with Faye Jordan's help.

"Gayner's murderer is headed for the 'Reina' right now, the same as Barselou. That's for sure. We thought you had the combination. That's why we searched you. I'm sorry."

Trim stood up and worked his shoulder muscles. "Where's the rest of my clothes?"

"In the front seat," said Sin, getting out of his way. "We're awfully—"

"I know," Trim snapped. He opened the car door and put on his coat. He donned the pirate hat at a rakish angle and jammed the wooden pistol back into his belt. Then he faced the fearful Conovers.

"Very well," he said, "we'll call it quits. You probably thought you were doing the best thing and you haven't exactly gotten in the way—yet. Besides, as the Bry-Ter Tooth-paste man, I haven't been any great help to your vacation."

John Henry thought it wise to keep silent. But Sin asked, "There's really supposed to be a tooth-paste man here?"

Trim grimaced. "Yes, I'm taking his place for a while—a deal the Bureau cooked up so I'd have a good reason for wandering around town. As you've found out by now, Barselou's got it pretty well sewed up."

"You're after Barselou?" John Henry burst out.

Folger's Coffee—Mountain Grown
Not Just Another Brand But A VERY SPECIAL Coffee Flavor!

Flavor Favorite Down on the Farm. Farm folk have a keen sense of taste appreciation... sharpened by active out-of-door lives... And how the men-folk rush to line up for Folger's... especially these chilly mornings when the vigorous goodness of Folger's really hits the spot!

Apple Pie and Coffee Flavor!—How well they illustrate flavor difference. Technically—if you slap a mess of apples in between pie crust you can call it apple pie. Yet what a far cry from that legendary pie "Mother used to bake." The difference in coffee flavor is often just as tremendous.

How Nature and Folger's combine to bring you the World's Finest Coffee!

IN the mountains of the Tropical Americas—the magic of abundant sunshine—rainfall and volcanic-ash soil combine to produce coffee with an amazing intensity of flavor. Folger's has pioneered the blending and roasting of these special kinds of coffees.

The individuality of the Folger Flavor is a triumph of selection, blending and processing of these coffees into a truly distinctive flavor. No other coffee is quite like it!... Try it... Discover its keen, winery tang... its rich vigorous goodness.

Social Events—Clubs

The subject of fashions is certain to appeal to the women and it was not surprising to find that the audience Monday afternoon at Sorosis overflowed the auditorium into the hall and even the dining room to hear Mrs. Carolee Thompson, designer at the Donnelly Garment company, talk on spring and summer styles.

Mrs. Thompson, who is a graduate of the University at Franklin, Ind., and formerly a buyer at Harzfeld's in Kansas City, substituted for Mrs. Sara Penney, who was in New York on a buying trip and was unable to return in time for the meeting Monday afternoon. Mrs. Thompson, however, proved to be a very delightful speaker, telling just the things the women wanted to know about the new styles in a most informal manner. During her talk Mrs. Robert Hall, described as a perfect size 14, modeled some of the new Nelly Don dresses. Mrs. Hall was also from Kansas City.

This is truly a blue year, Mrs. Thompson told her audience, any shade from the palest blue to navy. Biege is popular, too, Mrs. Thompson said, with straw or toast shades leading and all white this year is very important. Pink became a favorite in the southland this winter and was in demand, which is a sign it will be a leading color for summer. Now that it is the fashion to be pretty, pink comes into its own, Mrs. Thompson said, because it is always flattering. Lilac to purple will also be good, Mrs. Thompson stated, with grays strong in the early season for suits and coats and there will also be eggshell and bright green.

The new look crystallized into the easy-to-wear, very pretty silhouette with all the bad parts dropped, Mrs. Thompson said.

The new wide neckline is softened with collars or bows. They are ovals and deep plunging but are wearable, Mrs. Thompson said. There have never been so many pockets, the speaker said, some flat, some used for trim and they are all sizes and shapes.

As for skirts, Mrs. Thompson said, they are both full and straight. The full skirt is particularly good in cottons and the fullness that last year was in the front or back has now been pushed to the sides which is very pretty. The straight skirts, the speaker said, are found in suits and casuals, and skirts lengths are 12 to 14 inches from the ground.

We've come to that area where it is smart to be pretty, Mrs. Thompson said. Pleats are important, she said, some pleated all the way around, some from the waist line, other much lower.

The biggest change is in fabrics, which are crisp. They are not necessarily stiff, Mrs. Thompson said, but are crisp and pretty. The difference is so great that after materials are left hanging in the cases while women choose the new fabrics, she said. There will be lots of taffeta even for day time wear, Mrs. Thompson said, prints, rayon and pure silk shantung, cottons, many with metallic threads and shoulder pads will still be worn but not so much the football player type.

Mrs. Hall then modeled several frocks for spring and summer. A black rayon shantung with detachable white pique collar and pockets lined with white pique to hold their shape. A navy rayon shantung two piece dress with pockets on the jacket, slim skirt and silver buttons. A twin cord cotton made with slim skirt, fullness at the hemline, double peplum and smoke pearl buttons. A suit of rounded hip line with double peplum, pockets of brown corded material with gold buttons. A woven diagonal stripe chambray with pique trim. A dress of handkerchief plaid with triangular collar, cap sleeves, ruffle trimmed pockets on the waist and transverse buttons. An attractive summer dress with yoke with embroidery and lace yoke with dyed to match pearl buttons. A black and white plaid with contrasting hemstitching and matching jet-line buttons and a gray rayon print with double rows of ruching on the bodice. The dresses were all made on simple, smart lines.

Mrs. Thompson was introduced by Mrs. Gordon Stauffacher, Art and Drama chairman.

Mrs. Dimmitt Hoffman, president in the absence of the president, Mrs. H. E. Lindstrom.

A short talk on Girl Scout Week, which is March 12 to 18, was made by Mrs. H. C. Salvator.

The speaker next week will be C. F. Scotten, county superintendent of schools, who will talk on "Reorganization of Missouri Schools." A board meeting will day afternoon.

A luncheon in honor of Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Hall was held at 12:30 o'clock Monday afternoon preceding the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green, of Nineteenth street and Marshall avenue, entertained Sunday with a fried chicken dinner in honor of the birthday anniversaries of James Kabler, student at the University of Missouri, Columbia, and N. A. Alcorn, of Kansas City.

The long table in the dining room was decorated with flowers and two large birthday cakes.

Seated were: Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Alcorn and Miss Florence Parrish, all of Kansas City, James Kabler, Miss Mina Deal, of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Deal, Rev. R. E. Hurd, C. E. Alcorn, Mrs. Rosalie Alcorn, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sanford, Mrs. J. Lawrence Dyer and son, Gary and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green.

Mr. Kabler and Mr. Alcorn received many nice gifts.

The Past Noble Grands of the Loyal Rebekah Lodge 260 held the regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Guy Snyder, 520 South Park avenue, Friday, March 11.

A contributive dinner was served to 20 guests, the invocation was given by the chaplain, Mrs. Virgil Tucker. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Olive Bush. Plans were discussed for summer work.

During the social hour, a program in keeping of the St. Patrick's Day was given, the table decorations were in keeping of the day, all being of green and white. The origin of the day was given in a reading by the leader, Mrs. Floyd McKeehan.

In a word building contest, the award went to Mrs. Lora Rogers. An award was also given Mrs. Virgil Tucker in a word contest.

Mrs. Snyder was assisted by Mrs. Lena Meyers, Mrs. Virgil Tucker and Mrs. Ira Barnes.

Mrs. C. E. Van Horn and her assisting hostesses, Miss Chellis Johnson and Mrs. Oscar De Wolf, entertained members of the Stephens college club and several guests at the home of Mrs. Van Horn, 232 South Grand avenue, Thursday evening.

The decorations and centerpieces used on the tables were in keeping with the spring season and the St. Patrick's holiday. A dessert was served, which was in keeping with the holiday.

The program chairman, Mrs. Oscar De Wolf, introduced Mrs. Bea Pyle, field representative for Armour and company, who gave a talk on "The Preparing and Serving of Meats." She stressed the ability of being able to distinguish the different grades and qualities of meats. Miss Pyle also demonstrated several dishes of meat which were attractively garnished and decorated, ready for serving.

Following the program, a brief business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. George Routsong.

Two new members were added to the club, Mrs. Floyd Swanson and Mrs. Glenn White. Guests present were: Mrs. M. L. Edwards, Mrs. Nona Clagett, Mrs. A. A. Ferguson, Mrs. E. C. Thompson and Mrs. W. L. Lierman and Miss Pyle.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. Sid Condit April 9th.

A dinner will be held at the Sedalia Country club at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening which is St. Patrick's Day.

Reservations must be in by Wednesday noon.

The Juliette Low tea of the Sedalia Girl Scouts was held Saturday afternoon from 2:00 until 4:30 o'clock in the club rooms of the Elks club at Fourth street and Kentucky avenue. This year marks the 37th year of Girl Scouting, which was begun by Juliette Low.

The yellow tables were covered with lace tablecloths. Yellow roses and greenery were placed among the home made cookies.

SCHIAPARELLI — Here are two versions of Schiaparelli's jacket repertoire — a biege wool with belted fullness at the back and bias row of buttons, and a cape-sleeved jacket of white pique, worn with a narrow skirt of gray wool.

BALMAIN — Sheer drama in white jersey sheath, long black taffeta stole.

BALenciaga — An uneven hemline in a silver blue taffeta formal, hip drape.

JEAN DESSES — Swag is draped over the arm in this print silk taffeta gown.

By the punch bowls at either end of the table, were green tapers. The mantle was decorated with the Girl Scout colors, green and yellow and with Girl Scout handicraft. At the guest book table, which was presided over by four girls from Troop Four of Smith-Cotton high school, was a mock birthday cake, decorated in green and yellow.

This is the first year the entire membership of the Girl Scouts in Sedalia have been invited to attend a party as a group. They were invited by the Girl Scout Council through Commissioner Mrs. Henry C. Salvator. From 450 to 500 girls attended.

The chairman was Mrs. John Ryan and her committee was composed of Mrs. Cline Cain, Mrs. Philip McLaughlin, Mrs. F. Emory Bowman, Mrs. I. H. Lehmer, Mrs. Champ Richardson, Mrs. Frank Rouchka and Mrs. Joseph Riddick.

The following women assisted at the tables: Mrs. J. A. Lamy, Mrs. E. F. Yancey, Mrs. W. F. Keyser, Mrs. Henry C. Salvator, Mrs. Joseph S. Quinn, Mrs. D. Kelly Scruton, Mrs. A. A. Ferguson, Mrs. Harry Lambirth and Mrs. P. Cecil Owen.

A short program of songs were lead by Mrs. John Zulauf and Mrs. Elmo Harlan, song leaders.

Mrs. E. F. Paxton was the pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Garrett, of 1410 South Stewart avenue, entertained Sunday with a dinner in honor of their son, Larry, who was celebrating his fifth birthday anniversary.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schott, Lonny and Linda Jo; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schott, Miss Joann Schott, Joe Potts, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Garrett, and Lynn.

Those from out of town attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Perkins and Sharon Kay of Kansas City. Larry received many gifts.

Dispute Not For State Courts

JEFFERSON CITY, March 15.—(AP)—The Missouri supreme court ruled Monday the state's courts have no authority to act in a dispute between train porters and train brakemen.

That job is up to the boards established by the Railway Labor act, the court said.

The opinion was the result of action by the Frisco railway company against St. Louis Circuit Court Judge Harry F. Russell. The railway asked the supreme court to prohibit Judge Russell from proceeding in a case brought by two Frisco train porters.

The porters had complained before Russell that Negroes employed as train porters were actually head end passenger brakemen, that even though they were called porters they were given additional duties and less pay than white brakemen and that they were not permitted to join or be represented by white railroad labor organizations.

An agreement between the railroad and four railroad brotherhoods representing white employees to prevent Negroes from promotions or job reclassifications also was cited by the two porters.

They sought to have the judge declare that the "realities and not the fictions of job titles should control x x x rates of pay and seniority classification and other working conditions x x x and they are none the less brakemen even though Negroes are designated as train porters.

Russell then issued a temporary order keeping the railroad from taking away job functions of the Negroes as head end brakemen. This was agreed to by the supreme court until Railway Labor boards decide the jurisdictional dispute.

Col. O'Laughlin Died Monday Night

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(AP)—Col. John Callan O'Laughlin, 76, publisher of the Army and Navy Journal, and assistant secretary of state under President Theodore Roosevelt died Monday night.

He had been critically ill at Walter Reed Army general hospital since early January.

Col. O'Laughlin was a member of the European staff of the Associated Press staff in 1903-04.

Says Man Has Strange Powers That Work While He Sleeps

A strange man in Los Angeles, known as "The Voice of Two Worlds," reveals the story of a remarkable system that often leads to improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success and new happiness. Many report improvement in health. Others tell of increased bodily strength, magnetism, courage and poise.

The man, a well-known explorer and geographer, tells how he found these strange methods in far-off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. He discloses how he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. He maintains that all of us, and that methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

He maintains that man, instead of being limited by a one-man-power-mind, has within him the mind-power of a thousand men or more as well as the energy-power of the universe which can be used in his daily affairs. He states that this sleeping giant of mind-power, when awakened, can make man capable of surprising accomplishments, from the prolonging of youth to success in many fields.

Strongly, he says that this power works best while we sleep, when proper methods are used.

The author states the time has come for this long-hidden system to be disclosed to the Western world, and offers to send his amazing 9000-word treatise which reveals many startling results—to readers of this paper, free of cost or obligation. For your free copy, address the Institute of Mental Physics, 213 South Hobart Blvd., Dept. 596-J, Los Angeles 4, Calif. Readers are urged to write promptly, as only a limited number of the free treatises have been printed.

Offer Bill On Pawnshop Loans

JEFFERSON CITY, March 15.—(AP)—A bill to set up a special two per cent a month rate for pawnshop loans was introduced in the Missouri Senate Monday.

The top rate would be 25 cents a month plus two per cent a month on the amount of the loan over $12.50. Property left as security could be redeemed within 60 days. After that it would become the property of the lender.

Today's bill was offered by Senators John D. Fels (R) of Kirkwood and Menael Kinney (D) of St. Louis.

It is one of a series of interest bills introduced since the 1945 constitution barred classification of lenders. None has ever been enacted into law, leaving present maximum rates at six per cent or eight per cent by contract.

This year's proposal for a top rate of 27 per cent on small installment loans is set for House debate tomorrow.

Also introduced in the Senate was a bill to let cities, counties, towns or school districts set up recreation boards to develop parks, playgrounds and swimming pools. The local governing units could act alone or together.

They could levy a recreation tax up to two mills on the dollar if two-thirds of the voters approved.

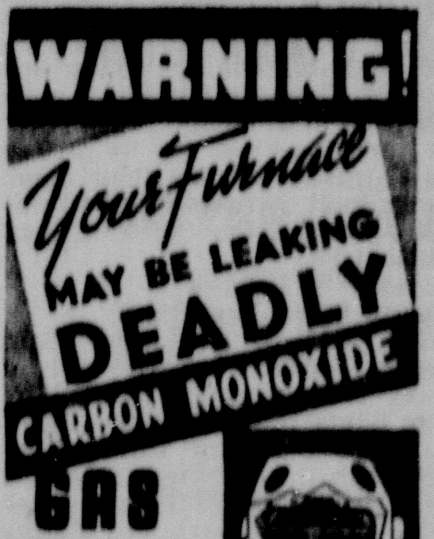

The bill was introduced by Senators Edward V. Long (D) of Bowling Green and John Hoshor (D) of Savannah.

Four Plays In Contest Given

Four community one-act plays and additional entertainment was staged Monday night at the Smith-Cotton high school. The Dramatics Festival will continue again tonight with three plays with the final judging of the best plays produced and the outstanding characters.

A large crowd attended the fun of Dramatics Festival, which has been shown annually at Sedalia for the past 22 years.

The first plays were shown at the old Fox Theatre. Eleven communities in Pettis county staged the first production of Dramatics Festival, and they have continued through the years with much response.

Mrs. H. L. Hill is chairman of the county dramatics, and is assisted by Roy I. Coplen, county agent, and Mrs. E. P. Kruse, who before her recent marriage was Miss Esther Dilaver, home agent.

The program Monday night was as follows:
7:30 p. m. Concert by Hughesville Band directed by Mrs. Max Eddy.

"The Ravens Eggs" by Green Ridge, directed by Mrs. Mattie Myers.

Special numbers by the Triple Trio of Queen City Choral.

Clarinet Solo by Junior Thompson of Hughesville.

"The Last Curtain" by Smith-ton, directed by Mrs. Paul Benson and Mrs. August Oehrke. Intermission, 10 minutes.

"His Wife's First Husband" by Quisenberry, directed by Mrs. Gar-nett Haglund.

Plane Carrying Mrs. Roosevelt Forced Back

ST. LOUIS, March 15.—(AP)—A Des Moines-bound airliner carrying Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and 16 other passengers was forced to turn back to St. Louis Monday because of failure of radio equipment at an airport at Quincy, Ill.

A spokesman for Mid-Continent Airlines here said the DC-3 could not make a scheduled stop at Quincy because "radio equipment at the field there was inoperative."

Quincy passengers were left in St. Louis and the plane took off again at 3:15 (CST) on a non-stop flight for Des Moines. Mrs. Roosevelt was scheduled to make an address there tonight.

Metropolitan Reports to Policyholders on 1948 Business

Here is the Financial Statement of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for last year. It is more than just figures, because back of them is the story of what 32,700,000 policyholders have done for their families and themselves.

The role of Metropolitan, like that of any Life insurance company, has been to help policyholders to make effective their individual plans for protection against the uncertainties of life. This Statement is a brief account of its stewardship.

The amount paid to policyholders and beneficiaries in 1948 was $721,366,364. Of this sum, $263,780,754 went to the beneficiaries of 235,000 policyholders; $147,045,672 to some 450,000 individuals for Matured Endowments and Annuities; and $59,403,238 for 650,000 claims for Disability and Accident & Health benefits. In addition, the total paid included sums for cash surrender values, dividends, and other payments due under outstanding policies.

The total payments by Metropolitan to policyholders and beneficiaries during the last 16 years aggregated $9,346,330,825—a sum which has served as a stabilizing influence in homes and communities throughout the country. This total exceeds the Company's assets of $9,125,145,007 as of December 31, 1948.

These assets are held to meet obligations of $8,591,210,201, of which more than 90% represents statutory reserves for future payments to policyholders and beneficiaries. Over and above these obligations, there remained a surplus of $533,934,806, which is about 6% of obligations—a backlog which must be available against the possibility of epidemics, adverse economic conditions or other unforeseeable situations.

The Company's assets guarantee the fulfillment of the $39,958,517,854 of Metropolitan life insurance in force. In addition, they assure the payment of the 448,394 annuity and supplementary contracts outstanding, and the 6,546,412 policies or certificates providing benefits in event of either accident, sickness, hospitalization, surgical or medical expense.

A few other highlights of the Company's 1948 annual statement are: the net rate of interest earned on total assets reversed the trend of many years and increased from 2.94% in 1947 to 3.03%; in line with the experience of business generally, there were some increases in expenses; the rate of mortality was slightly lower than in 1947; the lapse rate was one of the best on record; and new life insurance issued during the year was $2,904,157,071. The amount held for dividends payable to Metropolitan policyholders in 1949 totals $152,067,254.

Metropolitan investments continued in 1948 to serve various sections of the nation and its economy. The Company is interested in making loans, irrespective of size, to either individuals or corporations, which meet the legal requirements with which it must comply.

A more complete review of the Company's affairs will be found in its Annual Report to Policyholders, which will be sent to anyone on request.

team match in the Armory wrestling ring.

Myers scaled new heights in fan popularity when he jerked off the mask of the previously-unbeaten Red Phantom during their grueling battle last week. Myers is definitely one of the most outstanding offensive wrestlers of the season and Simonovich made a wise choice in picking Sonny to team up with him.

The La Rances have not minced words regarding their current campaign throughout the midwest. The French-Canadian brothers from Quebec are running for a crack at the heavyweight title and they are well aware that both Myers and Simonovich must be eliminated if they hope to gain their objective.

The Myers-Simonovich team will probably rely on their clever scientific strategy to cope with the expected roughing methods usually employed by the La Rance brothers. Neither Sonny nor Lucky have been known to yield an inch of ground in the ring without a struggle and there is no indication they will ever away from this course in Wednesday night's battle.

Abe (King Kong) Kashey, the Compton, Calif. roughhouse, will make his first appearance of the season in the semi-final match and is stacked up against Red Roberts of Atlanta.

Kashey has been going at a fast pace since opening his Midwest tour several weeks ago. He is out to regain a top contender spot and Kashey hopes to use Roberts as a stepping stone in that direction.

Athletic Association Holds Meeting Tonight

The Sedalia Athletic Association will hold a meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the assembly room of the court house, President Jack Cunningham announced this morning. The purpose of the meeting is to get everyone interested in sports to be present and enter into the discussion of the organization plans.

By-laws and rules of the organization will be discussed at length after which they will be voted on. The new association is a non-profit organization and for the development of athletics in Sedalia and not for any particular sport.

Mr. Cunningham explained the association plans to sponsor boxing events, football, basketball, as well as baseball. "In fact," he said, "we want to make Sedalia a place where folks enjoy sports." After the by-laws and rules are adopted election of a board of directors will take place and all present will have an opportunity to participate in this election.

Tony Galento Wants Crack at The Title

By Hillard A. Schendorf
Domenick Anthony Galento, known in certain circles as Tony Galento (an exaggeration), avowed today that he, too, wants a shot at the vacant heavyweight boxing throne.

The rotund barkeep paused over a glass of beer to repeat the announcement he has been crying on his far-flung wrestling tours these past weeks. "I'll molder de bums," he observed.

His manager, one Willie (The Beard) Glitzenberg, seconded the motion. "You know," he confided, "Tony's been hurt more in wrestling than he ever was when he was boxing."

One exponent of the grab-and-groan business, Orville Brown, sprained Galento's back in Kansas City "so he couldn't stand up for a week," reported The Beard. Galento marked his 30th birthday Saturday, but he argued that he is "as good today as I ever was."

Mort Cooper to Try a Comeback
LOS ANGELES, March 15—(AP)—A sore-arm pitcher seldom comes back, but Mort Cooper might make the rattle with the Chicago Cubs this season.

The big fellow who dropped out of baseball last year and had a thoroughly miserable experience all around is giving it a Homerick try, something his best friends never expected him to do.

For six months he has observed a Spartan diet consisting of coffee, oranges, gruel and fish. No meat, no bread, no beer — the last item undoubtedly the most important.

He took off more than 25 pounds, lost a roll of fat from his jowls and reported to Manager Charlie Grimm here weighing a trim 205, about his proper pitching weight. He passed a rigid physical inspection before the Cubs rewarded him with a contract.

The sore elbow which hounded the once-great hurler through his last three seasons with the Boston Braves and New York Giants has disappeared, he hoped for good.

Take Me Out Tomball Game
If the Browns won't let the Cardinals use Sportsman's Park in St. Louis this summer, Manager Eddie Dyer's numerous Texas friends will take care of him.

For instance, Eddie's brother-in-law, Cy Shaver, is building a new ball park in Tomball, Texas (pop. 500) and the other day he invited the Cardinals to play their home games in it. . . . Said Cy: "Tomball won't see the Cards without a ball park."

Huskers Trim Sooners 57-56 In Big Seven

Play Oklahoma A&M For Fifth District Spot in NCAA

By Skipper Patrick

KANSAS CITY, March 15—(AP)—The third-time charm, worked for Nebraska.

The Cornhuskers will meet Oklahoma A&M tomorrow night for the fifth district spot in the National Collegiate Athletic Association's western basketball playoffs Friday and Saturday.

Nebraska, beaten by its co-partner in the Big Seven conference crown twice during regular season, finally trimmed the Sooners, 57-56, here last night. The game decided which Big Seven team would play Oklahoma A&M champion of the Missouri Valley conference.

To Meet in Kansas City
Tomorrow's game and the week end tiffs will be played in Kansas City's municipal auditorium.

For Nebraska the Aggie engagement will be another step in the Cornhuskers' greatest basketball season in modern times.

The Aggies are old hands at playoffs and tournament basketball. Coach Henry (Hank) Iba's teams have won the NCAA championship two years in a row — 1946 and 1947 — and have played in five Fifth district games.

Coach Jerry Wood's gangling Cornhuskers succeeded last night where they had failed on two previous occasions with the Oklahoma Sooners — in the closing minutes of play. Oklahoma won the first game in the regular season 47-45 at Norman, the second 56-49 in overtime at Lincoln.

Trailing from a 20-18 count in the first half, Oklahoma staged its usual late rally that had pulled the Sooners over in half a dozen games this winter.

This time the clutch play — a pass from Marcus Frieberger to Wait Morris under the enemy basket — failed to click and the sharper and better team won.

Nebraska Led at the Half
Nebraska led 27-25 at the half. Lanky Don Whitehead led the Huskers with 17 points. Joe Maselek contributed 14.

Marcus Frieberger, the Oklahoma 6-foot, 5-inch sophomore, counted 14 for the Sooners.

Teams participating in the Western NCAA playoffs Friday and Saturday will be Oregon State, Wyoming, Arkansas and the winner of the Nebraska-Oklahoma A. and M. game.

Oregon State won the right to represent the Pacific Coast last night by taking the rubber game of a best of three series with UCLA, 41-35, at Corvallis, Ore.

Playoffs of the eastern playoffs, which open Monday at Madison Square Garden, were announced yesterday. Kentucky, ousted from the National Invitation tourney in its first game yesterday, will meet Villanova and Yale will face Illinois. The winners tangle on Tuesday for the privilege of making the trip to Seattle, Wash. where the finals will be played March 26.

Kentucky is the defending NCAA champion.

Sport Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, March 15—(AP)—Query from a training camp asks "How about the talk that veteran American league umpires are going to gang up on Joe Paparella this season?" . . . The story, which hadn't reached this corner before, is that they're putting the squeeze on Joe for Bill McGowan's suspension. Last season because he reported just what he said in that shindig with the Senators and didn't try to soften his punches.

If it's true, it sounds like a good way for more umpires to get themselves in trouble. . . . Also in the unconfirmed rumor dept. Is the gossip around Wisconsin that Harry Stuhldreher won't remain in his present job more than a year. . . . It's a plain fact, however, that when Citation made his one public appearance at Hialeah, the fans picked up 20,000 postcard pictures of the horse.

Sports Move Your Eyes
Lee Boren, California fight manager, has come up with a young featherweight Bobby Why from Santa Barbara State college. . . . Too bad they can't match Why with Roger Whynott and let the broadcasters develop another "Who's On First" act. . . . During the 1948-49 basketball season, the William and Mary team scored exactly 1949 points. . . . Don Chambers, who plays some first class basketball for Jefferson township high school in Indiana, lost his left arm in an accident when he was seven years old. He balances the ball on his left shoulder then shoots with his right.

Information Peleaz
For the fifth time in succession, one of the Peleaz boys of Moundsville, W. Va., and Alderson-Broadbent college has been chosen for the all-tournament team in the West Virginia Intercollegiate conference. . . . Peleaz made it in 1942, 46 and 47 (no tournaments in 43, 44, 45). Last year Joe Peleaz was chosen and this season it was brother Bob, who has another year to play.

St. Louis And Kentucky Lose

By Will Grimley
NEW YORK, March 15—(AP)—Four outsiders who staged perhaps the greatest mass expulsion of favorites in the history of basketball will square off Thursday night in the semi-finals of the National Invitation Tournament.

Loyola Faces Bradley
Loyola of Chicago will meet Bradley university and Bowling Green of Ohio will face San Francisco in an all-Cinderella team lineup at Madison Square Garden.

Gone are Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 college quintet acclaimed in some quarters as the best ever; defending champion St. Louis University and the two other seeded entries — Utah, No. 3, and Western Kentucky, No. 4.

They went out in one giant sweep of the underdog broom in a matinee and evening quarter-final session yesterday.

Two of the survivors are clubs that got into the tournament on rain checks when the committee decided to pick an oversized field — Loyola and Bowling Green.

Outsiders Knof 'em Off
It was these two teams which knocked over the tournament's top ranked powers — Kentucky and St. Louis, figured to carry an old rivalry into Saturday's final. Loyola stunned the Kentucky Wildcats with a great surge in the final minutes, 67 to 58. Bowling Green, big and fast, manhandled a silk-smooth St. Louis, 80 to 74.

To complete the rout, Bradley bowled over Western Kentucky, 95 to 86, and San Francisco, without a senior on its squad, humbled Utah, 64-63, on Frank Kuzara's 35-foot one-hand shot in the last seconds of play.

'Bill' Cissell, Former White Sox, is Dead

CHICAGO, March 15—(AP)—Chalmers (Bill) Cissell, 45, former Chicago White Sox shortstop, died at Mercy hospital today.

Cissell, who lost his job with the Sox to Luke Appling in 1932 and later played with several other major league clubs, had been confined in the hospital since the middle of January.

He had been found destitute in a small south side apartment. He was suffering from inflammation of nerves in his legs and was scarcely able to walk.

Cissell, who was born in Perryville, Mo., was playing baseball for an army team at Fort Riley, Kas., in 1925 when he was picked up by Des Moines of the Western league. He played with Des Moines in 1925 and 1926 and then was sold to Portland. After one year with Portland he was sold to the White Sox.

Ben Hogan Can Now Go Home
EL PASO, Tex., March 15—(AP)—Ben Hogan, untamable golf prodigy who has been hospitalized since a traffic crash Feb. 2, can go home "when he feels like traveling."

Yesterday he took the first step on the road to his home in Fort Worth, Tex. He left his bed for a wheelchair and sat in the sun for 30 minutes.

He was injured in the collision of his car with a bus near Van Horn, Texas.

Old Age is Creeping up On Cardinals

But Musial-Slaughter Plus Brecheen Make Them Title Threat

By Jack Hand

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 15—(AP)—Old age is creeping up on the St. Louis Cardinals but the Stan Musial-Enos Slaughter punch plus Harry Brecheen's pitching make the Red Birds a pennant threat.

Manager Eddie Dyer has changed his mind about "the team to beat." For the last two years it has been Brooklyn. Now Eddie has switched to Boston.

Braves Will Be Tough
"If Pete Reiser can get back to his 1946 form," said Dyer today, "the Braves are going to be tough."

"And Pittsburgh will be better — definitely. Murry Dickson, the fellow we sold them, will be a big help. So will Bob Muncie and Hugh Casey."

A replacement for outfielder Terry Moore, who retired to become a coach, is one of Dyer's most pressing problems. Then he has to be prepared to reshuffle his infield if third baseman Whitely Kurowski's comeback should backfire.

Kurowski underwent an operation for removal of 18 bone chips from his right elbow last September. He is in shape at 184 pounds but his arm is a question mark.

Ron Northey, the chunky round man, melted several pounds off his waist line to make a strong bid for the right field job. If Ron can hold it, Musial will play center and Enos Slaughter, the new team captain will be in left. Dyer may alternate Northey and Ed Sauer, brother of Cincinnati's Hank, who has drafted from Los Angeles after a 305 season. Sauer is a righthanded hitter.

Diering And Dusak Vie
Chuck Diering and Erv Dusak, good field no hit candidates, are in the outfield scrap. So is Hal Rice, 321 batter at Rochester. The infield probably will be Nippy Jones or Glenn Nelson alternating at first, Red Schoendienst, Marty Marion at short and Kurowski.

The club is weak in capable infield reserves. Tommy Glavin, No. 287 hitter at Columbus and Eddie Coker, 309 at Rochester, back up Kurowski.

Don Lang, who played third base most of last season with Kurowski out of action, figures as the utility man.

The catching department is weak. No. 1 is Del Rice, a fine receiver but a weak 197 hitter. Rice suffered a fractured wrist yesterday. The others will be Joe Garagiola, back from Columbus where he batted .356 and 38-year old Bill Baker.

Brecheen (20-7), of course, tops the pitching staff. Howie Pollet (13-3) with new confidence and Al Brazle (18-6) give Dyer three southpaw starters. George (Red) Munger (10-11), still a potential 20-game winner, is the other sure of a regular turn. Jim Hearn (8-6) and Ken Johnson, who split 1948 between Rochester (6-9) and

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON, March 15—The list is supposed to be secret, but 38 former senators and congressmen are drawing retirement pay from the government. Several are independently wealthy; two have prison sentences hanging over their heads. Many others fully deserve pensions for their long service to their country. However, the greed of those who do not deserve pensions is likely to hurt those who do.

Only eligibility requirements are that the applicant must be at least 62 years old and have six years' service in Congress. The amount he can draw is figured at 2 per cent of his average salary, multiplied by the number of years he served. The average payment is $3,238 annually, but runs as high as $6,500.

Although the law went into effect only two years ago, these retirement benefits are retroactive.

Two of the first to apply for the handout were former Congressmen Andrew May of Kentucky and James Curley of Massachusetts, whose itchy palms had already got both of them prison sentences. May was convicted of embezzlement and is waiting to serve a term behind bars. Curley served five months of a prison sentence for mail fraud, before it was commuted by President Truman. Now mayor of Boston, he is drawing retirement pay along with his mayor's salary—although he barely qualified for a pension with only six years of congressional service.

Knutson Goes in Reverse

Another who no sooner got voted out of Congress than he signed up for retirement pay is Minnesota's ex-congressman Harold Knutson. A power in the 80th Congress, he fought brusquely against social benefits for others, and helped bar about 700,000 traveling salesmen from social security.

This is also true of Colorado's Robert Rockwell and Michigan's Bartle Jonkman, both nickel-nursing veterans of the 80th Congress. Rockwell was the darling of the power lobby, and Jonkman squeezed all he could get out of the government after the election by flying to South America as a lame-duck congressman—at the taxpayers' expense. They are now drawing pensions.

Also on the retirement list are former senators Joe Guffey of Pennsylvania, Burton Wheeler of Montana, James Tunnell of Delaware, Jim Mead of New York, George Radcliffe of Maryland, Peter Gerry of Rhode Island, a millionaire; Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota and Raymond Willis of Indiana. The first five voted for social security for others so are not inconsistent today.

Some of the ex-congressmen, who also receive monthly checks from the government are: William Pittenger of Minnesota, Clarence Lea of California, Dan Gehee of Mississippi, J. Roland Kinzer of Pennsylvania, Butler Hare of South Carolina, James Wolfenden of Pennsylvania, Fritz Lanham of Texas, Hatton Sumners of Texas, Herman Koppleman of Connecticut, Malcolm Tarver of Georgia, William Thom of Ohio, John Folger of North Carolina and Edward McCowen of Ohio.

Also there are former congressmen Louis Ludlow of Indiana, George Gillie of Indiana, and C. Jasper Bell of Missouri.

Farm Telephones

While America is shooting through the air in jet planes and sitting on a nest egg of atomic bombs, many farmers a few miles off the beaten track can't get so much as a goose-necked, country telephone.

The amazing fact is that, by the last count, the USA had fewer rural phones in 1945 than in 1920.

To remedy this, President Truman had made up his mind to appeal for more phones for the farms in his State of the Union message—that is, until some of the boys in the White House talked him out of it. Now, without any push from the White House, a few senators and congressmen are trying to work out a bill to increase telephone service to the farms.

The blunt truth is that those in most need of phones can't get them. Most farmers still have to hitch up a horse or wheel out the truck to get a message to their neighbors. In case of illness or disaster, they are cut off without any rapid means of communication.

Back in 1920, 38.7 per cent of American farms were linked with telephones. Then the depression hit, farmers couldn't pay their bills, and, by 1940, the percentage of rural telephones dropped to 25 per cent. This started picking up during the war until it reached 31.8 per cent in 1945, the last official count.

Telephone companies now boast that a record 45 per cent of American farms have telephone service. This does not agree with the agriculture department's estimate, which is 42.2 per cent for 1949, or just a shade over what it was 30 years ago. In actual numbers, the agriculture department estimates there are still less phones on farms than in 1920. The department expects 2,473,000 farms will have phones this year—25,493 less than in 1920. The reason for the difference in percentage is that America was fewer farms now than 30 years ago.

At best, rural telephone service is poor, the equipment antiquated. In some places, telephone lines do double duty as fence wire. For the most part, rural areas are served by hundreds of small, poorly staffed, independent companies and cooperatives.

Note—State by state, the percentage of farms having telephone service ranges from 3.7 per cent in Mississippi to 79.3 per cent in Iowa.

What Keeps Prices Up

The justice department is investigating a significant price-fixing scandal in Salt Lake City involving the Uptown Appliance and Radio company. Briant Badger, president of the firm, has filed a $500,000 lawsuit, charging that he was forced out of business for refusing to take part in an illegal price-fixing scheme.

Badger claims that Leland B. Flint of the Flint Distributing company threatened to cut off

Research On Atomic Plants
WASHINGTON, March 15—(P) Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) said Monday a huge new research project is to be started soon on atomic plants for submarines and ships.
He said the atomic energy commission will spend about $500,000,000 (M) in the next five or six years building new atomic reactors for the project. It is to be located in a western state.
McMahon is chairman of the Senate-House atomic energy committee. He told about the project in an interview after a meeting of the joint atomic energy committee with AEC director David Lilienthal and other commission officials.
"at the end of this research,"

McMahon said, "we are hopeful we can demonstrate that mobile (atomic) power plants not only are feasible but are here."

As for the size of the project, McMahon said it will be about as big as the atomic project at Hanford, Wash. McMahon also said:

(1) The project will be located at one of three sites—the exact location yet to be determined by the commission.

(2) It will have a population of "several thousand" workers.

Camera News

By Irving Desfor

"Women can take family movies as easy as pie. In fact, it's easier than baking a pie."

Naturally, it was a woman talking, one who had taken many home movies and baked many pies.

"The men have been treating the cameras as their personal, sacred property long enough," she added. "The woman of today who is smart enough to raise a family can handle a camera. It needn't be a Hollywood production, but it'll show the children's activities around the home at the time they really happen."

Now I can't bake a pie, so I was in no position to argue with Mrs. Margaret Ostrom, sales promotion manager of the Bell & Howell Co., of Chicago. With a department of 10 women under her, she master-minded the campaign which won for Bell & Howell the Direct Mail

MARGARET OSTROM checks her 8 mm. family movies.

Advertising Association best-of-industry award for 1948.

she managed to keep the home front going and growing with a two children department. All the highlights from baby days to present college days for her daughter are on film for family gatherings and enjoyment. She believes most mothers could, and should do, equally well.

"Why I once prepared a birthday party for my son with all the trimmings for 12 guests. I did all the serving, supervised the games, put up lights and took movies... alone! All it takes is confidence. The camera doesn't scare me any more."

Okay, ladies, gather round while Mrs. Ostrom gives you a basic course in home movie making that will lead to confidence.

First, get an 8 mm. (for economy) magazine loading camera so you don't have to juggle with film leaders, sprockets, loops and re-winding. There's your magazine. Put it in with side No. 1 on top.

Second, the lens should be the fixed focus type. It's less expensive and there are no adjustments for distances to worry about.

Third, do all your first shooting outdoors in sunny weather. That standardizes the conditions so that you can adjust the lens shutter between f 5.6 and f 8 with color film and leave it there. (If using black and white film, the shutter can read between f 16 and f 22.)

The film footage counter has been set and the spring fully wound.

Now sight your darling in the view finder. HOLD THE CAMERA STEADY, tightly against your cheek, press the button... and you're off!

As for me, I'll have another piece of pie... only I'll have to bake it myself. My wife's been too busy taking movies of the youngsters!

AUSTIN, Tex.—(P)—The longest basketball winning streak in the Southwest Conference play belongs to Texas by the narrow margin of one game. Texas put together 21 victories in a row, 20 of them coming in the unbeaten 1924 season. Arkansas once copped 21 straight.

Attack Plan
For Relaxing
On Assistance

Edward Staples
Assails One Of Senator Lawrence

JEFFERSON CITY, March 15—(AP)—A plan to relax old age assistance payments in Missouri was attacked before a Senate committee Monday night.

Edward Staples, representing the Missouri Public Expenditure Survey, said the plan "seriously loosens eligibility requirements for old age assistance."

The plan is contained in a bill sponsored by Senator Yewell Lawrence (D) of Bloomfield. Lawrence is chairman of the Senate public health and welfare committee which is considering the bill.

Staples contended the Lawrence bill would throw the state budget out of balance by more than $3,000,000 during the next two years. Staples used figures given the committee at a previous hearing by the division of welfare to back up his contention that the budget would be unbalanced by the bill. He said 14,000 old folks would be added to the 121,000 old people now getting pensions if the bill became law. This would cost $1,735,000 a year, or $3,470,000 for the two year budget period, Staples said.

Would Change Method
Since the budget is in balance by only $364,000 on the basis of expected state income the cost of relaxing the requirements would unbalance it by $3,100,000, he argued.

Staples also found fault with another provision of the bill. He said the proposed change in the method of determining the amount of property pensioners may own was not a reliable yardstick.

The bill would use assessed valuation of the property as a standard, while now a figure more near the true property value is used.

The Lawrence bill also would prohibit income in the home of a pension applicant from being considered in deciding if the person is eligible for a pension. At present the income of the entire family is considered.

The committee deferred action on the measure after hearing Staples' presentation.

Freights Pile up in Accident

Four of 11 derailed freight cars and the rear unit of a three-unit diesel locomotive are smashed together near Harrisonville, Mo., following a side-swiping of two freight trains. The accident occurred as a steam locomotive freight pulled onto the main line tracks of the Missouri Pacific railroad. No one was injured. (Associated Press Photo)

Out of Flaming Truck Alive

William L. Cox, 30, lies on the seat in the cab of his burning gasoline truck with only a water-soaked canvas separating him from roaring flames. His head, visible through the flames, is indicated by the arrow. The canvas was thrown to Cox by two firemen who suffered burns in braving the heat to reach him and then shot their fire hoses on him to keep him alive. The truck driver, trapped in the floor boards of the cab, was taken to a hospital suffering from a twisted leg, shock and burns on his arms, legs and back. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

For Eight On Commission

Proposed For A Bi-Partisan Body On Highways

JEFFERSON CITY, March 15—(AP)—An eight-member bipartisan state highway commission was proposed in the Missouri Senate Monday to replace the present 4-member group.

It was sponsored by Senator William M. Quinn (D) of Maywood and six other senators. Quinn also was the author of a ten-member highway commission bill vetoed by former Gov. Phil M. Donnelly during the 1945-46 session.

Quinn said his new plan is intended to make the commission more representative in order to administer a proposed two-cent increase in Missouri's two-cent gasoline tax.

His original ten-member bill called for the members to be distributed geographically throughout the state. The new bill would leave the choices up to the governor. But Quinn said he is confident any governor would distribute them on a statewide basis.

He said St. Louis and Kansas City should each have one commissioner with the rest scattered. That way, he explained, the commissioner would know local road needs.

The governor would select one man as chairman and another—of a different political party—as secretary. They would be full time officials in Jefferson City with the chairman getting $10,000 a year and the secretary $3,000.

"Someone on the commission should know the details of what's going in that department," Quinn said.

Pay $20 A Day
Other commissioners would get $20 a day for time actually worked, plus expenses. The present rate is $10 per day.

The department's chief engineer would get $10,000 a year, the same as now, and the salary of the assistant chief would be increased from $7,500 to $9,000. The pay of department heads—who now get $6,000—and all other department employees would be left to the commission.

Commissioners would serve staggered six-year terms.
The state geologist would continue to be an ex officio member of the commission but would have no vote.

Cities opposed his old ten-man bill but Quinn said he saw no reason for big city opposition to the eight-member plan.

Joining as sponsors were Senators J. E. Curry (R) of Ava, Doyle Barrow (D) of St. Joseph, W. R. Walker (R) of Carrollton, Edward V. Long (D) of Bowling Green, Harry J. Revercomb (D) of Shelby and D. W. Gilmore (D) of Benton.

Quinn, Curry and Walker served on Gov. Forrest Smith's advisory highway committee which recommended last week a four-cent gas tax to finance a 10-year, 32,000-mile road program.

The present highway commission has passed a resolution pledging to carry out the program if the tax increase is enacted. Quinn said his plan to increase the commission membership would be a further guarantee that the program would be followed.
